

Fragment of an ancient papyrus scroll containing handwritten text in a cursive script, likely Demotic or Hieroglyphic. The text is arranged in approximately 25 horizontal lines. The fragment is heavily damaged, with significant portions missing, particularly along the right edge and in the lower half. The ink is dark, and the papyrus is aged and discolored. The text is written in a dense, cursive hand, characteristic of ancient Egyptian writing. The fragment is labeled with numbers 5, 10, 15, 20, and 25 on the right side, indicating line numbers. The top right corner is labeled with the Roman numeral VI.
